

3. PARKING LOT

Mr. Smith, Mr. Jones, Mr. Brown, Mr. Johnson, and Mr. Black work for the Tinyburg Electric Company. Their cars are different colors: red, yellow, green, blue, and white. As it happens, each man also drives a different type of car: a sedan, a station wagon, a sports car, a coupe, and a convertible. From the clues given try to determine the owner, color, and type of each car.

1. Neither Mr. Johnson nor Mr. Jones owns the red car, but one of them owns the convertible.
2. Mr. Jones, Mr. Brown, and the owner of the sedan sometimes go on camping trips with the owner of the yellow station wagon.
3. The coupe and the white car are owned by the men with the colorful last names.
4. Mr. Smith used to own the sports car but then he changed its original white color and sold it to one of the other men who did not paint it green.
5. Mr. Johnson owns a green car.

4. WHO DUN ITS

One rainy evening, five military men were murdered in the old mansion on Willow Lane (a general, a captain, a lieutenant, a sergeant, and a corporal). The murders took place in the bedroom, basement, pantry, den, and attic of the house. No two men were murdered in the same room or with the same weapon. The weapons used were poison, a poker, a gun, a knife, and a shovel. From the clues given, try to determine the room in which each man was killed and the weapon used to do him in.

1. The murder with the shovel was not done in the den or the attic; neither the captain nor the lieutenant was killed with the shovel, nor was either killed in the den or the attic.
2. The captain was not murdered in the bedroom.
3. The poker was not the murder weapon used in the attic.
4. Neither the general nor the corporal was murdered with poison, a gun, or a shovel.
5. The man murdered in the basement had just had dinner with the corporal, the captain, the man done in with poison, and the victim of the poker.
